REBELLIOUS INK · TATTOO & PIERCING STUDIO

Artist set-up form

Everything we need to put you on the system and on the website. Write clearly; the desk types it in and issues your login the same day.

1. About you

What we need to set up your login and your page on the website.

Full name

Name shown to clients as it will appear on the website

Mobile

Email optional; we can set you up with a username instead

Pronouns optional, for your page

Preferred username for the app letters, numbers, dots; e.g. jay.colour

Instagram handle

I am a

☐ Tattoo artist ☐ Junior artist ☐ Piercer ☐ Apprentice (name your supervising artist below)

Supervising artist (apprentices only)

Arrangement

☐ Resident artist (60/40 split) ☐ Chair rent ☐ Guest spot (dates below)

Agreed days in the studio e.g. Tue to Sat

Guest spot dates (if guest)

Which days can clients book you online? we will set your hours with you; tick walk-in days with a W

☐ Mon ☐ Tue ☐ Wed ☐ Thu ☐ Fri ☐ Sat ☐ Sun

2. Your work

This goes on your public page and tells the desk what to send you and what not to.

Styles you do one per line, e.g. black and grey realism, fine line, neo-traditional

Styles you do not do

Placements you will not tattoo e.g. face, hands, neck

Anything else you will not do shown publicly, so clients do not ask

Piercers: piercings you offer, and any you do not

Short public bio two or three sentences in your own words; we can tidy it

Books

☐ Open to new enquiries now ☐ Closed for now; open on (date):

3. Your prices

Your rate card. Leave blank anything you do not use. Prices are shown to clients as a guide.

Hourly rate from (£) | Hourly rate to (£) | Day rate (£)

Minimum charge (£) | Flash: small from (£) | Flash: palm from (£)

Fixed-price items name, approximate minutes and price, one per line; piercers list each piercing

Notes for the desk private, never shown to clients: how you like enquiries handled, what to check before booking you

4. Registration (required by law)

Tattooing and piercing must be registered with the local council before you work here (in London the premises licence covers you; in Wales you need your own practitioner licence). We keep a copy of your certificate on file, and the council can ask to see it.

Council registration or licence number | Registering council

Registration certificate tick one

☐ Attached ☐ Will bring before my first day ☐ Not yet registered; I need the studio's help to apply

5. Photos and your page

Bring or send at least six photos of your work for your portfolio, plus a logo or portrait for your card.

Logo or portrait

☐ Attached ☐ Will send to thedesk@rebelliousink.tattoo ☐ Please take one in the studio

Portfolio photos: caption, placement, healed or fresh, one line per photo every photo of a client's tattoo needs that client's permission to publish; tick below

Permission

☐ I confirm every client in these photos has agreed to them being published on the studio website and social media, or the photo shows my own design with nobody's skin in it

The studio may

☐ Publish my profile, bio, prices and portfolio on rebelliousink.tattoo

☐ Post my work on the studio's social media with credit

☐ Include me in studio promotions and the email newsletter

6. Getting paid

Only used to pay your share for card and bank-transfer bookings. Kept securely and never shown to anyone else.

Account name | Sort code | Account number

7. Declaration

I confirm the details on this form are correct, that I am self-employed and responsible for my own tax and National Insurance, and that I hold the council registration listed above. I understand my details will be used to set up my account and my public page, as described in the studio privacy notice, and that I can ask for them to be changed or removed at any time.

Signed | Date

Studio: entered on the system by | Date and username issued